

To

All the candidates of
Distance Learning Courses

In pursuance of the UGC Notification dated 23rd October 2017, the Distance Learning Courses can only be offered by the Universities/Deemed to be Universities from session 2018-19 onwards. In view of the above, The National Institute of Health and Family Welfare may not offer the distance learning courses from 2018 onwards.

Candidates admitted to various Distance Learning courses in 2017 at NIHFW and all other candidates of previous years i.e. 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 are advised to complete the course along with the batch of 2017-18, i.e., the final examination which is going to be held during July-August, 2018. As per the course requirement, to be eligible to appear in the final examination a candidate must attend two contact programs, submit two sets of assignment and a project report. Course wise details of the contact program schedule and time line for submission of assignments and project reports are available in the website (www.nihfw.org).

For any query, please feel free to contact Distance Learning Cell at NIHFW through respective course wise e-mail IDs.

Co-ordinator(s)

Distance Learning Cell
NIHFW, New-Delhi.